CONSTITUTIONAL PETITION UNDER ARTICLE 199 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF ISLAMIC REPUBLIC OF PAKISTAN, 1973ORDER

28.04.2025

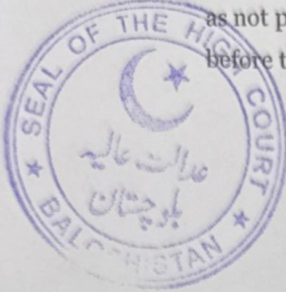

Ms. Aster Mehek, Advocate for petitioners.
 Mr. Zahoor Ahmed Baloch, AAG for respondent Nos.1 to 4.
 Mr. Attaullah Langove, Advocate for respondent No.9.

During the course of the arguments, it transpired that respondent No.9 had filed counter affidavit wherein the contentions of the petitioners have been refuted with regard to the subject matter of the petition.

When confronted to the learned counsel for the petitioners that the matter raised in the instant petitioner reflects factual controversies which can only be resolved through producing evidence and the ultimate jurisdiction is with the Civil Courts, learned counsel for the petitioners frankly conceded the same and stated that she will not press the instant petition and will pursue the matter before the Civil Court by way of filing a suit.

In view of the above statement of the learned counsel for the petitioners, the instant Constitution Petition No.190 of 2025 is dismissed as not pressed, however, the petitioners are at liberty to pursue the matter before the competent forum in accordance with law.
