

IN THE COURT OF FAMILY JUDGE-III, QUETTA

Sakina Versus Abdul Ghaffar

FAMILY SUIT.

ORDER SHEET:

17-08-2024

Present: Parties in person along with minors

Called; today the instant case is fixed pre-trial reconciliation proceedings. Ample time has been granted to the parties for settling their dispute and a sincere effort made for resolving the controversy between the spouses by the undersigned. Finally, the parties have entered into compromise on some terms and condition.

Following terms and conditions have been settled between the parties:

- i) The defendant is bound to provide maintenance to plaintiff and minors according to his financial means and behave like a responsible husband and father.
- ii) Both spouses shall not use abusive language against each other and defendant is strictly restrained not to beat or torcher plaintiff in any manner.
- iii) Both spouses shall respect each other and perform their part of marital obligations according to injunction of Islam.

The parties shall abide by the above-mentioned terms and conditions that are read over them. Thumb impression of parties obtained on the margin line of order sheet. Pre-trial reconciliation proceedings resulted successful.

In the light of successful result of pre-trial reconciliation proceedings and above terms and conditions executed between the parties with their mutual consent. The instant suit of plaintiff is disposed of on the basis of compromise. However, the plaintiff is at liberty to file a fresh family suit against defendant if settled terms and conditions are violated from the side of defendant. The costs shall follow the event.

File after due completion be consigned to record.

GIVEN UNDER my hand and seal of the Court on this 17th day of August, 2024.

Announced
17-08-2024

Sdxxxxxxxxxxxxx
FAMILY JUDGE-III, QUETTA.

District & Section Judge
District of the Quetta-Shikhan Court/1341

Orderd By
17/8/24